

ELCIRA: Come and join your peers in Europe and Latin America, share and collaborate using services and tools tailored to your collaborative research activity.

ELCIRA

- Allows easy and unified access to advanced networks through Authentication and Authorisation Infrastructure (AAI) federations in Latin America and their integration with their global peers via the GÉANT eduGAIN inter-federation service.
- Empowers NRENs and their research communities by offering collaboration tools delivered by a SaaS Cloud across partners in Latin America and Europe.
- Fosters the deployment of the eduroam service in Latin America.
- Promotes collaboration between Latin American and European researchers.
